

Josh Rouse, Wonderful

Oftentimes I sit and wonder
As I gaze out over yonder
I'm so crazy about you
So crazy and it's true
I think you're wonderful
Don't change
I think you're wonderful
Don't change your way
I think you're wonderful
Don't change your way at all

It is the morning, love, you have found me

Reading the paper with my coffee
And before you must go
There's one thing you should know
I think you're wonderful
Don't change

I think you're wonderful
I think you're wonderful
I think you're wonderful
Don't change at all
At all
At all
