

Joshua Kadison, I'll Just Let My Piano Play

Been working on a song, for you a simple melody.
Something just to let you know, how much you mean to me.

Tryin' to find the perfect lines, but the words put up a fight.
No matter how hard i try i just cant say it right,
i love you so much more than words could ever say.
So ill just let my piano play

How could i describe the way your eyes look into mine, i could never do justice to the way your love makes me shine,
i love you so much more than words could ever say,
so ill just let my piano play

if i could turn my voice to thunder as i sing these words to you,
if i could be the morning sunlight on your face.
maybe then my song would do,
but i am just a minstral and music is my trade.

how could i write a song for you,
when your every love song i have ever played.
i love you so much more than words could ever say,
so i'll just let my piano play.

if i could turn my voice to thunder as i sing these words to you,
if i could be the morning sunlight on your face
maybe then my song would do,
but i am just a minstral and music is my trade.

how could i write a song for you,
when your every love song i have ever played.
i love you so much more than words could ever say,
so i'll just let my piano play.
