

Joss Stone, Did I forget

Got my mind on working all the time
I don't know if you're going left or right
Oh, wanna ask you, but I'm just too shy
Let down your wall
Let me figure you out
Ain't this clear
Do I scream and shout?
Didn't I mention I love you?
Did I forget to say?
A whole lot of things we must discuss
Firstly lets address this thing called us
Oh, would you care if I just up and left?
I know my heart would burst right out of my chest
Somehow you got every start in life
How do you feel now dear, do you share my mind?
Didn't I mention I love you?
Did I forget to say?
Now do you feel the same
Would you care to explain
Do you miss my smile
When I'm not here, baby
Can you hear my pain
When I miss your call
All I wanna do
Is spend my time with you, baby
oooh ooh oh oh oh
oooh ooh oh oh oh
Didn't I mention I love you?
Did I forget to say?
Cos I heard you mentioned you loved me
And ooh, I feel the same
oooh ooh oh oh oh
oooh ooh oh oh oh
Ooooh
