Journey, If He Should Break Your Heart

(Perry/Cain/Schon)

Please be wrong Please don't tell me it's really you Tell me eyes... tell my heart what I'm goin' through I believed, I believed I was over you

[Chorus:]
If he should break your heart
I'll always know where you are
If you should fall... apart
I'll be there, I'll be around
If he should break... your heart
I'll be there

Is this right I don't care I'm alone with you Here we are, once again you've got someone new Lonely hands, please don't do what you wanna do

[Chorus]

If he should break... your heart From my soul I say... good-bye yesterday One more night alone, without the touch... of you Then I start to break... is it my mistake Tell me am I wrong... for holdin' on... to you

[Chorus]

If he should break you heart, I'll be there If he should break your, if he should break your If he should break your heart I'll be there, I'll be around
