

Joy Electric, The Boy Who Never Forgot

Time takes me further
Down here a well
Old springs turn bitter
Where dear ones fell
A written page reads, "we have lost";

Come back, the boy who never forgot
Cannot you hear?
The boy who never forgot

Hope and a full heart
Have claimed their part
I let it go with a will that's slowed
I want to be where I can't go.....
