

Joy Enriquez, Someday

Verse 1 :

Baby, baby, baby, I love you
That's why it doesn't make sense to me
Baby, baby, babe, I adore you
That's all that really matters to me

B - section :

So go ahead and walk out that door
Just know before you start, you'll be Back for more
oh baby

Hook :

Someday we will be together
Someday you'll open your heart
Might not know it now, but the day's gonna come
You'll be running back to my arms

Verse 2 :

Baby, baby, baby I know you
Better than I know myself
Baby, baby, baby I know you
Can't be in love with somebody else

B - section :

There's no turning back with your pride
But you'll be coming back in a matter
Of time, ooh baby

Hook

Second hook :

And I'll be kickin' with my boyfriend
Makin' plans and conversation
Chillin' on the weekend
What a perfect combination
Might not know it now, but the day's gonna come
You'll be running back to my arms

Bridge :

It's gonna be hard for me
But I can't lie
I know that you still care for me
You still love me
And baby that's what keeps me strong
