

Judas Priest, Fight of Your Life

Judas Priest prezentuje utwór "Fight of Your Life" z płyty Invincible Shield" (premiera 8 marca 2024)

It's taken one by one
To see what i've become
Been looking at the point of no return

It's when i score and drive
That makes me come alive
To break it down and come around and make it no concern

In the moment when you think you're falling
It's up to you – you've got the fight of your life
In the battle you're the last man standing
You're the victor of the fight the fight of your life

I'll face it toe to toe
No point in letting go
To stick it out no matter what they say

And should i hit the ground I'm ready to rebound
Still on my feet with no retreat and set to seize the day

In the moment when you think you're falling
It's up to you – you've got the fight of your life
In the battle you're the last man standing
You're the victor of the fight
The fight of your life

I got to look in deep
And pull out all I keep
The wear and tear is bringing up the past

I'm overturning stones
Get down to skin and bones
Then lay it out and work it out
And throw away the trash

In the moment when you think you're falling
It's up to you – you've got the fight of your life
In the battle you're the last man standing
You're the victor of the fight
