

Juice WRLD, Life's A Mess II (ft. Clever & Post Malone)

Have you fallen head over heels for somebody that Made promises to give you the world?
I really hop they held you down
I really hope it was no lying
'cause my heart breaks
It feels like the world's gone
But if the love's real
You fell your soul like a Lion
Or you finally let bygones be bygones
Don't throw on the towel
I know it feels like you're tonly trying
You just gotta learn to live and love on

I belong ith the one put on this Earth for me
Everybody has their someone
Just gotta look and see
I am screaming out" Lord, help me, i been lonely
That's when you accept me
Then you set me free

Uh, sometimes life's a mess
I get high when i am upset
I remember when me and love did click
Searching for some real , then i found it
Uh, sometimes life's a mess
I get high when i am upset
I remember when me and love did click
Looking for some real , then i found it

From the bad
What's better now?
Through the trials and tribulations
I found my way out

Feel all of the good and bad vibrations all around
All around us, they surround us

Was a lost cause with some lost love
It ain't my fault pain chose us
Then i found her
My whole world turned upside down
Uh, but fro the better

I belong ith the one put on this Earth for me
Everybody has their someone
Just gotta look and see
I am screaming out" Lord, help me, i been lonely
That's when you accept me
Then you set me free

Uh, sometimes life's a mess
I get high when i am upset
I remember when me and love did click
Searching for some real , then i found it
Uh, sometimes life's a mess
I get high when i am upset
I remember when me and love did click
Looking for some real , then i found it

I'll put the light in your eyes if i'm allowed to
I am Too fly to hold you down baby
Don't wanna be here alone
