

Julianne Hough, Love Yourself

Can't believe he took the coward's way out
And did it over the phone
If you ask me when it comes to him
You're better off alone
I hate to see my best friend
Feeling like a dead end
Thinking she was born to lose

CHORUS:

I wish you could love yourself
Oh, I wish you could love yourself
The way that I do
He never really knew the side of you
That your friends all love
You gotta be who you are 'cuz who you are
Is more than enough
There isn't any doubt
Inside and out
Your beauty comes shining through

REPEAT CHORUS

Oh, I wish you could love yourself
Yeah, I wish you could see you
The way that I see you

I wish you could love yourself
Oh, I wish you could see you
The way that I see you
