

June, Forever Forgetful

It's funny 'cause I can still hear the voice
My head is spinning round (spinning round)
Cross my heart and hope to die
In hopes of keeping my luck
All systems read go
(All systems read go)
Don't stop the fire as it takes us both alive
Let it scorch our bodies

[Chorus]
Please wake from your slumber
(Please wake from your slumber)
(Toss and turn)
Tell me what she is dreaming
(Are you blind)
Just standing here screaming
(Wake up)
Wake up from your nightmares
(from you nightmares)

I never thought that this could be
What is it you see in me?
So would this change any of our minds
Being nervous, in touch with our loaded smiles
And an exit clip for our regrets
So don't stop the fire as it takes us both alive
Let it scorch our bodies

[Chorus x2]
