Justice, Secret Life

Another usual day in your life
There you sit and wait to finish work
Imaginations of subhuman kind
But no one sees through you and your secret within

As you knock on the door Your blood starts to boil Enjoy the pain, you want more And you will never recoil

Bow down, now Obey Show obsequiousness

Remote controlled you stalk through the streets As you know your aim, and your aim is the pain Bondage gear and the lady in black And when you feel the whip, it's like heaven on earth

As you knock on the door Your blood starts to boil Enjoy the pain, you want more And you will never recoil
