

Justin Bieber, 2 Much

Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice evrywhere

Maybe i stayed too much
Maybe not long enough
Funny how i forget to blink
When you let your hair
There's like no ones there
I am know i am where i am supossed to be

Say love you under my breathe
More Times than you can digest
Music every time i hera your name
Your head's layin' right on my chesr
Sun's up, but i still ain't got no rest

Don;t wanna close my eyes
Ia m ascarded i'll miss too much
Don't wanna fall asleep
I'd rather fall in love
When i can't feel you
I feel out of touch
2 seconds without you's like 2 months
Don;t wanna close my eyes
Ia m ascarded i'll miss too much
Don't wanna fall asleep
I'd rather fall in love
When i can't feel you
I feel out of touch
2 seconds without you's like 2 months
And that's too much

Love the way yooou love your mom
Take on all your friends problems
Still somehow stop the world for us
I still relieve that sceond
I amade my biggest blessing
Prayed for you
Look whan God has turned

Say love you under my breathe
More Times than you can digest
Music every time i hera your name
Your head's layin' right on my chesr
Sun's up, but i still ain't got no rest

Ia m ascarded i'll miss too much
Don't wanna fall asleep
I'd rather fall in love
When i can't feel you
I feel out of touch
2 seconds without you's like 2 months
I feel out of touch
2 seconds without you's like 2 months
And that's too much
