

Justin Bieber, As I Am (ft. Khalid)

By myself sometimes
To give my mind soem space
I know
I know that it hurts
When i push your love away
I hate myslef
I wanna tell you lies
So your heart won't break
I know
I know that i made my fair share of mistakes

Sometimes i don't know why you love me
Sometimes i don't know why you care
Take me with the good and the ugly
Say i am not goin' anywhere

Take me as i am
Swaer, o do the best i can
Say i am not goin' anywhere

Take me as i am
Swaer, o do the best i can
Say i am not goin' anywhere

A thousand miles apart
You;re the one that hurt my heart
It's no surprise
And i tell you all of the time
When ilife gets way too hard
I'll meet you in the stars
You never know where
I;ll keep in
Cause it's survival wherre you're in

Sometimes i don't know why you love me
Sometimes i don't know why you care
Take me with the good and the ugly
Say i am not goin' anywhere

Take me as i am
Swaer, o do the best i can
Say i am not goin' anywhere

Take me as i am
Swaer, o do the best i can
Say i am not goin' anywhere
