

Justin Bieber, Broken (feat. Blake Kelly)

I guess they want a reaction
But I ain't gonna give it to them
Baby, they trying to get at me, yeah
I ain't gonna feed into it
O they be persistent
Tying to break me down

Oh I can not be broken,
I cannot be broken
/2x

They can't take what's mine
Someone like me is hard to find
Oh, I can not be broken
Like I knew you were hoping

Hoping it would change me
Hoping it would make me lose my mind
Way too strong for that
You know you were wrong for that

So keep on chasing that 4-58
Got that cruise on the smooth highway
I ain't even tryna get away,
I'm good
They try to break me

I cannot be broken, oh oh
Oh I cannot be broken
I cannot be broken
They can't take what's mine,
Someone like me is hard to find,
Oh I cannot be broken,
Like I knew you were hoping

[Blake Kelly]

Hoping and praying I really won't make it
All of these dreams, they tried to forsake me
How you gon' play me?
How you gon' break me?
I've been in this (?) since diapers and babies
All my life, been driving them crazy
There go the Blakey, thought of them ladies
Dreaming of Benz, and kissing Mercedes
Living the life, the life is so crazy
I need some cameras, honeys and ladies
How you expect me not to go crazy
Never been lazy, never been shady
Lost a few friends, the monies still gravy
We da new stars, that's why they still hatin'
Money up front, we never waitin'
Save some and invest some
Just let my money be patient
It's a cold world we that we live in Diamonds all in my pendant
They wish Satan tellers was in it
Then they'd prey for me to be finished
Them haters gon' start trippin'
When you don't pay them no attention
And the obstacle I might face
I guarantee that I kill it!

I cannot be broken, oh oh
(No!)

Oh I cannot be broken
I cannot be broken
They can't take what's mine,
Someone like me is hard to find,
Oh I cannot be broken,
Like I knew you were hoping
