

Justin Bieber, Catching Feelings

Sun comes up on every morning
My mind never wakes up with that you wanted
And it's crazy to me, I even see you in my dreams
Is this meant to be? Could this be happening to me

We were best of friends since we were this high
So why do I get nervous every time you walk by
We would be on the phone all day
Now I can't find the words to say to you
Now what am I supposed to do?

Could it be a possibility
I'm trying to see what's up
Cause I'm made for you, and you for me
Baby now is time for us
Trying to keep it all together
But enough is enough
They say we're too young for love
But I'm catching feelings, catching feelings

In my head we're already together
I'm good alone, but with you I'm better
I just wanna see you smile
You say the word and I'll be right there
I ain't never going nowhere

I'm just trying to see where this can take us
Cause everything about you girl is so contagious
I think I finally got it down
And all that's left to do now, it's get at the mirror
And say it to her, yeah

Could it be a possibility
I'm trying to see what's up
Cause I'm made for you, and you for me
Baby now is time for us
Trying to keep it all together
But enough is enough
They say we're too young for love
But I'm catching feelings, catching feelings

Should I tell her how I really feel
Should I moving closer just be still
How would I know?
Cause if I take a chance, and I touch her hand
Will everything change
How do I know, if she feels the same?

Could it be a possibility
I'm trying to see what's up
Cause I'm made for you, and you for me
Baby now is time for us
Trying to keep it all together
But enough is enough
They say we're too young for love
But I'm catching feelings, catching feelings

Catching feelings, catching feelings
