

Justin Bieber, Forever (feat. Post Malone & Clever) Lyrics could you be here whit me forever, ever, ever would you be here whit me forever, ever, ever walking up all alone ain't better, better, better every time I go, the wrong way you turn me back around turn me back like woah forever, ever, ever, ever, ever do you wanna look at me forever, ever ever do you see us in Vegas pushin' that Monte Carlo Bet thet money on bay bet she don't look leave me see them, the wearsin the desert look like a lake in the sand Would you watch the sun burn out whit me forever, ever, ever, ever you still intimated me keep me up on my toes now better man, wat you made me made me aware of what I was missing been missing the way you gave me ambition, babe

Never thought I'd settle down reckon I lied to myself I was busy focusing on being by myself set my feelings to the side they all got dusty on a self you wiped them down when I had nothing left

every time I go, the wrong way you turn me back around

when you asked me If I cheated, I said never what are you willing to do to stay together how many times we gonna break up or the summer how many times you gonna try to call my mother girl, you killin' me

I don't wanna act like I can fix this I don't wanna be the one that's changed since Texas currency, it comes so naturally but I can't buy your love

every time I go, the wrong way you turn me back around

I promise, I am gonna love you till my daying day wake up, your face in my chest your favorite hiding place the roof is gone as we're driving out the provate gate counting the stars whit our last name on the license plate whoa
I lied to mysef about trying to be here all alone when I leave, it's bye for now its just never be for long set my feeling aside let's settle down every time I go the wrong way you turn back around turn me back like forever, ever, ever, ever do you wanna look at me forever, ever, ever, ever won't you be here with me forever, ever, ever?
