

Justin Bieber, Somebody

Every time i wake up next to you
I talk to god
And i am so damn grateful
Cause you make up for all the things i am not
Didn;t know i need nothing
Till i needed you
Im a world that's spinnin'
It ain't easy lettin' go
8 billion people always kust leeoki' for hand to hold
Everyone's tryna find someone to hold on to

It is okay
We all try to pretend that we're brave
When i awake
I am stronger
Because of you at end of the day

Everybody need somebody
Everybody need somebody
Somebody will remind you
That you're not alone
