

Justin Timberlake, I'm Sorry

I'm Sorry

Can someone tell me why I always hurt you

'Cause honestly, I just don't understand

You would've given me the world, if I asked

But now I'll never have that chance again

I miss the way you made me smile

And how you looked into my eyes

I wish I couldn't take back all those things I said

But now all I can do is apologize

But that's not enough..

(C)

You loved me, I left you

I'm crying, 'cause I need you

I miss you, but you're gone now

And it's my fault, and I'm alone now

I'm sorry, I'm sorry
