Justme , For You

When you were close to me
The world seemed to be brighter
Everything around me wasn?t true
Just only to be with you

Every day, every dream is my waiting
Every night, every thought
Is the sign of my loneliness
Will I ever see you
Do you think about me
Now you are far away
Behind the curtains of the sea
The time is stopped right now
I am alone with my loneliness
Every day, every dream is like you
Every night, every thought
Is like the voice of my soul
Will I ever see you
Do you think about me
I want to smile with you
Smile to me too
