

Kai Tracid, Express Your Hidden Passion

Tell me

Can you express your hidden passion?

Or do you live by social direction?

Moving with the madding crowd

Void of sense and self expression

Awaken from your paralyzing nightmare

And transcend the boundaries to reality

For caution to the wind be free

Unleash the strength within to dare

Express your hidden passion

Express your hidden passion

Express your hidden passion here and now

Dancing free, a soul without fear

No need to hide or be ashamed

Craps your chance release your passion now

The walls of inhibition crumble

Past shadows fade and light prevails

Like the phoenix from the ashes you have risen

Live life to the fullest while other stumble

While other stumble

Express your hidden passion
