

Kaiser Chiefs, Meanwhile Up In Heaven

Picture yourself by a rocket
Picture yourself in a glittering silver suit
Picture yourself getting on it
Saluting the news crews, you're the new recruit

Do you remember the numbers
Hung on the door of the house where you grew up?
Do you remember the colours
Tied round the handles of last year's FA Cup

Meanwhile up in Heaven, they're waiting for you, waiting for you
And if you believe them, you will see that when you
/2x
Are ready to

Guided by love and a flashlight
Led by consuming desire for a good idea
Lighting the clock on the dashboard
It's not worked ten years, but I know that it's still there

Meanwhile up in Heaven, they're waiting for you, waiting for you
And if you believe them, you will see that when you
/2x
Are ready to

Your mind is the key, it is the key that sets you free
/2x

Meanwhile up in Heaven, they're waiting for you, waiting for you
And if you believe them, you will see that when you
Are ready to...
