

Kali Uchis, After The Storm (ft. Bootsy Collins, Ty

did u ever wonder yeah do u ever wonder that he might be goin throught on his own and the demons that he;s facing alone I hate that sometimes I can't go home and
It just ain;t the same on the phone no but everybody's gotta go on don't they?

so if u need a hero just loo in the mirror no ones gonna save you now so you better save yourself and everybody;s hurting everybody's going through it so you just can't give up now coz u gotta save yourself

the sun'll come out
nothing good ever comes easy & I know times are rough but winners don't quit so don't you give up

thought we be chasing endlessly someday we'll find the luck coz after the storm is when the flowers bloom
