

Kali Uchis, Melting

Oh

Oh

You are my church, you are my place of worship

I heard you're the plug, can I be the circuit?

When I got court, I hope that you're the verdict

When you're around, my insides turn inverted

My blood starts to rush when I see your doorman

I know you're nearby and I know your purpose

Take one look at you, you're heaven's incarnate

What is this spell, baby? Please show some mercy

Melting like an ice cream when you smile

Melting, you're a daydream, stay a while

I pray that I can learn to be funny

I'm watching every stand-up comedy

Just hoping that it'll rub off on me

So you'll smile at everything I say

You got some soft lips and some pearly whites (pearly whites)

I wanna touch them in the dead of night (dead of night)

Your smile ignites just like a candlelight (candlelight)

Then somehow, I know everything's alright

Melting like an ice cream when you smile

Melting, you're a daydream, stay a while

Melting like an ice cream when you smile

Melting, you're a daydream, stay (melting)
