

Kambrium, Against All Gods

„fire! scattered calls of hope cinders! our prayers won't be heard trampled! our friends and our homes broken! they left us all alone rise up, don't forget, what we are going through look up and accept, their actions are undue grind your knife and spear, immortal lives undone shake off all your fears, their doom will shortly come“

fire will lead us
we follow the path
we raise our blood soaked swords
against all gods
awoken from darkness
and bound to the light
forever we stand as one

„hatred! they always let us down repulsion! on us they seem to frown rumble! the ground will eat us all stumble! for Cabrakan will fall perish and regret, your era ceases to be face down, don't object, you are no gods to me
gear up for the fight, we stand in disbelief
gone out is your light, even you can bleed“

blazing sun show us the way bring us hope and light so we won't decay take the fears of those who can't stand their ground burn the night away until the darkness is downed no wind no rain will break our will we are strong and proud so we won't stand still dignify the ones who have lost their lives glorify your believe that the gods soon will die

we follow the path
