

Kambrium, Dawn of the Five Suns from the void there came a beast the first god did arise darkness, light and storms gave birth to his four sons creation of a new world has begun cosmic time and mankind by the suns

Four Winds created life but was attacked by chaos the throne was claimed again so death could reign the lands

far beyond the time
ancient gods created life
a cycle of destruction
and hope inside
the kingdom of the ones
it would fall and rise again
dawn of the five suns
and a new world has been born the third controlled the rain hold a scepter and sent lightning this world came to an end when the second sent his fire

Four Waters reigned the land a tremendous flood appeared humanity got lost and silence did awake

and a new world has been born

the last sun broke the earth Four Movements sent his rage creatures of the stars descended from the sky
