

Kamelot, Forever

there's a pain within that I can't define
there's an empty space
where your love used to shine from the night we met till the day you died
do you think I wished do you still believe I tried all too soon we were divided and life had just begun will you revive
from the chaos in my mind
where we still are bound together
will you be there
waiting by the gates of dawn
when I close my eyes forever I belong to you
you belong to me
it's the way things are always meant to be like the morning star
and the rising sun
you convey my life and forgive me what I've done
in darkness and light
save me reverse how I'm thinking of you every breath I take brings me closer closer to forever, to you I'm waiting for the day that I'm gone
