Kamelot, Soul Society

If my soul could revive
From my carnal remains
What does it matter to me
If it all fades to black
If I'm born once again
Then no one really is free
How could I be condemned
For the things that I've done
If my intentions were good
I guess I'll never know
Some things under the sun
Can never be understood

How can we believe in heaven Human reason counters all Ideas of a soul society My life is just a fragment Of the universe and all There must be more than I can see

In the dark we're the same In the concept of time We're like a grain in the sand And we strive for the flame As if death was our aim Cause we cannot understand

How I wish there was a heaven All for one and one for all A flawless soul society Our lives are just a fragment Of the universe and all There may be more than we can see
