

Kanye West, True Love (feat. Xxxtentacion)

True love shouldn't be this complicated
Thought I'd die in your arms
I thought I'd die in your
True love shouldn't be this complicated
Thought I'd die in your arms
I thought I'd die in your
True love shouldn't be this complicated
Thought I'd die in your arms
I thought I'd die in your
True love shouldn't be this complicated
Thought I'd die in your arms
I thought I'd die in your
No hard feelings but these feelings harder
When I think about it, my eyes fill up with water
Don't have our daughters butterfly while they larvae
Wait, when you see the kids? I'll see y'all tomorrow
Wait, when the sunset? I see y'all tomorrow
Wait, when I pick 'em up, I feel like they borrowed
When I gotta return them, scan 'em like a bar code
Wait, no hard feelings, but these feelings hard though
Wait, who got our kids in some, "What are those?"
Wait, why they can't wear Yeezys with the cargos?
Y'all know Nike don't like me, y'all take it too far though
At least have 'em in some Mike's, he played for Chicago
I only see three kids, who watchin' Chicago?
And you know all the nannies said, "Daddy in Nebraska"
Let the kids dig a tunnel to my house like Chapo
Only neighbor in the hood with a door they can knock on
I leave the light on
True love (daddy's not gone)
Shouldn't be this complicated (you see the light on)
Thought I'd die in your arms (daddy's at home)
I thought I'd die in your (tell Gekyume)
True love (daddy's not gone)
Shouldn't be this complicated
Thought I'd die in your arms
I thought I'd die in your
Oh, whoa, oh, whoa, oh, whoa
Oh, whoa, oh, whoa, oh, whoa
Oh, whoa, oh, whoa, oh, whoa
Thought I'd die in your arms
I thought I'd die in your
True love shouldn't be this complicated
Thought I'd die in your arms
I thought I'd die in your
True love shouldn't be this complicated
Thought I'd die in your arms
I thought I'd die in your
