

Kardinal Sin, Victorious

A lonely spark deep in the shadows, down my spine a chill of fear grows
In the silence I fall down as I taste the kiss of death

A broken soul astray in darkness, lost my pride as I lay mindless
In the twilight on my own and I taste the kiss of death

It hurts beyond compare and sense, I scream, I cry, the pain intense

I'm alive - live, I'll scream it from the borderline, here I stand - victorious
I'm alive - live, above the sun my star will shine, here I am - victorious

I find no mercy, it's get worse, my time has come with no remorse
Heading for the big unknown as I taste the kiss of death

Life is just a weak illusion, choices, doubts a big confusion
The bitter taste is all my own when I kiss the lips of death

From darkness I will rise, you'll see the fire burning in my eyes

I'm alive - live, I'll scream it from the borderline, here I stand - victorious
I'm alive - live, above the sun my star will shine, here I am - victorious
Here I stand - victorious

From darkness I will rise, you'll see the fire burning in my eyes

I'm alive - live, I'll scream it from the borderline, here I stand - victorious
I'm alive - live, above the sun my star will shine, here I am - victorious
Here I stand - victorious
Here I am - victorious
