

Kari Amirian, Saving Grace

There are the times
When I fell like music has a hollow ring
There are the days
When the air is solid as a stone

You are the saving grace
Though day is over
I've got your love
Love to keep me warm

Everything ends
Fades away like a little tear in the rain
Nothing is there
Though it seems like everything's in place

You are the saving grace
Though day is over
I've got your love

You are the saving grace
Though summer's gone
I've got your love
Love to keep me warm

So I'm dancing in the sun
So I'm dancing in the sun
