

Karin Ann, I'm a loser

i don't wanna come off too strong for my heart and for my emotions
i just wanna seem like i don't care cause i wanna be tough in their eyes i wanna not care for what they say but my emotions get in the way my emotions get in the way

but i'm just a loser baby overthinking shit daily thanks to all the cracks inside
my mind
and i'm just a loser baby overthinking how things may be if it wasn't for my broken mind my emotions make me wanna die cause i am sad all the time this is just the way that i get by you can't tell me that it's a crime

if i broke my back if i broke my legs maybe then they would care if i could stay strong if i could be bolder maybe then i wouldn't care
