Karin Ann, we're friends, right?

it's been a week you've already found someone new it's interesting how fast you found her i don't understand how you could be moving on so fast but it's fine 'cause we're friends, right?

i haven't cried in a day but i swear i'm fine i saw you with her i should've seen the signs i hope you have fun in her arms and i'll swear that it's fine 'cause we're friends, right?
