

Kasia Gomola, Bring Me Down

I'm not a girl who gets in the way
I won't bother if it's not okey
But it would mean much if you say
Why you stopped answering me

You know I want you to change your mind
But you keep pushing me aside
I think it's time for me to try to get you out of my mind

I hate myself for knowing that
All you have to say to get me back
Just one word, nothing more than that
And I hate myself for missing you
And know that everything you do
Is going to bring me down

As I read most of your texts
I can tell you messed with my mind
I wish you'd tell me to my face
But I've learned you're not that kind

Do you really think that it's okey to give me hope and take it away?
