

Kasia Lins, Ain't Gonna Wait

When I look when I look in your eyes,
I see I see only lies
What else what else have you got to say
I know I know that's not your way

Something came up and you crossed me off your schedule
Something went wrong and you stoped writing all your letters
Something must have happend that you gone without saying goodbye
Something deep inside says that you lost your faith now
