

Kataklysm, Where The Enemy Sleeps...

we stand in hell... inside the tombs of heaven my way is your way... we play fire with fire we fight to die, survive to kill man of strenght, man of sin, man of courage forever sorrow, no one left behind we stand alone, until the last cry i can't feel... my nerves have turned to steal my emiotions... unreal, pull the trigger to kill forgive me father... for i have sinned beneath all innocence

my mind is covered in blood i feel like i'm born again without the heart i once left save me!... save me!... for i am no more...

honour is everything i am disconnected from reality... this is war...

wihtout the heart i once felt we will hunt them down... we will strike where the enemy sleeps

we stand in hell... inside the tombs of heaven
