

Kate Ryan, Wild Eyes

spin the world
into slow motion
like it's running in blue

tip your toes
into the ocean
till your body
turns blue

like a pillow in the sky like a pillow you've been screaming in like your head onto the cloud and the clouds you've been dreaming in when magic we're in end if you onlu let it on

why your fire in the sky
when I

flashing green
flasing light
