

Katerine, One way ticket

Your looking for me, I'm looking at you
I'm waiting to see what you're gonna do
Boy you better believe it
You're coming with me tonight
Cause baby I set the trap for you to fall in
But you won't wanna get out once you start to give in
How does it taste now that you've taken a bite
This could be your opportunity (So tell me what you're waiting for)
Baby won't you take a chance on me
I can be your one way ticket you can take it now
Do I have to spell it out
Cause baby I can be
Your one way ticket you can ride it now
Do I have to shout it out
So tell me are you coming with me
I think I figured you out, you're misunderstood
Cause you're no innocent boy cause you've got the look
Are you ready to learn are you willing to give it a try
Cause baby what you put it you're gonna get out
Cause it's original sin know what I'm talking bout
Why don't you hold out your hands
And follow me down cause you're mine
Decisions we're making
My body's taken over my mind
The rules that we're breaking
It's only now that I realize
I'm falling in deeper
Know I put my heart on the line
Cause there's only one way
And you can take it now
I'm gonna spell it out
Cos baby I can be your
I can be your
