Kayah, Too Close

Every night you leave me Outside your deepest dream

Of paper dragons Lanterns Colours All within

I am to close to be your dream

One life with me Isn't enough for you There's another Behind your eyes where you go

And every night You can't wait to sleep So you can go to Asia And hold A sword-one two

And a dragon's head Lies dead-it's only paper Yes yes you tiger Yes yes you hero

Traveler explorer and gentle lover Your body signs and speaks in Tai Chi So you can gaze into her asian eyes deep I am too close to be your dream
