

Keaton Simons, Maybe I Will

Maybe I Will

Dont cry for me
Youll bring the rain, again
Its like youve never seen the sun
Stop wasting time with this old game, again
You want a chase you gotta run
You cant live your life through me
Oh, baby, thats insane, you see
Sure its cool for you to

CHORUS

Give just a little bit
Love just a little bit
And please save a little for yourself
Cause, baby, its your life
So start livin it
Try not to give a shit
And maybe I will
Dont cry for me
Dont call my name, again
This aint what I call havin fun
Cause you run deeper than the rain my friend
I knew I never should have come
You cant waste your life on me
Just get it through your brain, and please
Know its cool for you to

(Chorus)

Why does everybody want what they cant have?
Nothins changed, its still:
Treat them mean
Keep it clean
(treat them mean, keep it clean)
Why does everybody want what they cant have?
Tell me; tell me
Why does everybody want what they cant have?
You cant live your life through me

Oh, baby

Thats insane, you see
Sure its cool for you to

Give just a little bit
Love just a little bit
Please save a little for yourself
Youve got to

(Chorus)

Give just a little bit
Love just a little bit
Oh, oh baby
