

Keith Urban, Sometimes Angels Can't Fly

Somewhere tonight, there's somebody cryin'
And feelin' completely alone
Somewhere tonight, there's somebody tryin'
To find a way back home

Mmm-mm I don't know why
Mmm-mm but sometimes angels can't fly

How many times have you judged a stranger
Shakin' your head in shame
And wondered how could they fall so far
Well maybe they're not to blame

Mmm-mm I don't know why
Mmm-mm but sometimes angels can't fly

They've got their wings and they've got their will There's blue sky all around
But sometimes it seems that we're destined to be Forever on the ground

I don't know why, no

Look at us runnin' around in circles
Chasin' our peace of mind
Searchin' in vain for our wayward halos
That some of us never find

Mmm-mm I don't know why
Mmm-mm sometimes angels can't fly
Mmm and I don't know why
Mmm sometimes angels can't fly
Mmm
