Keke Palmer, Enemiez (ft. Jeremih)

Bite my tongue, it never hurt so bad
Keep warning you to cross that line
I keep tryina get you to react
It never happens every time

Now you're falling through my face
There's one thing can cure this pain
I want you inside of me, oh
Can you fill this empty space?

This ain't enough for me
Gotta be honest, I want you to last for me
And if I just ain't your friend, forever be your enemy
So we can do all the things you're holding back from me
So, let's be enemiez
I know you keep your friends close,
But I know you keep your enemiez closer
keep your friends close,
But I know you keep your enemiez closer

I'm gonna change the way you look at me
Put desire in your eyes
No, I can't wait to see your fantasies
I can make you come alive

Now you're falling through my face
There's one thing can cure this pain
I want you inside of me, oh
Can you fill this empty space?

This ain't enough for me
Gotta be honest, I want you to last for me
And if I just ain't your friend, forever be your enemy
So we can do all the things you're holding back from me
So, let's be enemiez
I know you keep your friends close,
But I know you keep your enemiez closer
I know you keep your friends close,
But I know you keep your enemiez closer

I've been on my worst behavior
I want you to punish me
I bet you that I could take you Where?

This ain't enough for me
Gotta be honest, I want you to last for me
And if I just ain't your friend, forever be your enemy
So we can do all the things you're holding back from me
So, let's be enemiez
I know you keep your friends close,
But I know you keep your enemiez closer
I know you keep your friends close,
But I know you keep your enemiez closer
