Keri Hilson, Wrong When You're Gone

Woah, oooh...
Oooh, oh...

(Verse 1:)
Guess I should've shut my mouth,
but I had to get it out.
So much for being head-strong.
Now I'm,
goin' halfway out my mind.
I know I was out of line.
No, scratch that I was dead wrong.

But I know I should've let it go,
but I just had to be right. (Oooh)
Could've left it alone,
but no I just had to be right.

Swear I, would've fell back if I knew all I'd be left with is these shoulda, coulda, woulda cuz you're gone.

(Chorus:)
Now, I'm out here trippin'
cuz you came up missin',
and my head keeps spinnin'.
It's gettin' outta control.

I'm backin down this time.
I don't wanna fight.
I don't care who's right.
Cuz, I'm wrong when you're gone,
When you're gone. (yea....)
Feels so wrong when you're gone,
when you're gone. (yea..)
