

Kevin Max, The Imposter's Song

We don't like your politicking
Get a new life, get a new love
This is where your soul needs stitching
Get on a job, bang on the drum

Please believe, you're beautiful when you're not made-up

Turn the switch, to give you my love
A soul kiss, it's all over (yeah yeah yeah)
Turn the switch, to give you my love
A hard itch and it's never enough

Later on this train is leaving
Get on a board, sit in the sun
Praying knees don't need any breaking
Use all your fun, sleep like a nun

Please believe, you're beautiful without the makeup

Turn the switch, to give you my love
A soul kiss, it's all over (yeah yeah yeah)
Turn the switch, to give you my love
A hard crush and it gives you the shove

(It's over)

Please believe, you're beautiful when you're not made-up (It's over now)
Please believe, you're beautiful and that's not made-up (It's all over)

Turn the switch, to give you my love
A soul kiss, it's all over (yeah yeah yeah)
Turn the switch, to give you my love
A hard crush and it gives you the shove

Turn the switch, to give you my love
A soul kiss, it's all over (yeah yeah yeah)
Turn the switch, to give you my love
A hard crush and it gives you the shove
