Khalid, All I Feel Is Rain (feat. JID)

Although I got love for you
I still can't change your ways
You say you need me the most
Only 'cause I'm here with you
Some things aren't adding up 'cause your actions stay the same
Why won't you tell me the truth?

If I knew from day one that you wouldn't ride
They say the pain hits you by surprise
You made it sound like you were down, now, you switching sides on me
I know everything, you don't gotta hide from me
I can see it all looking in your eyes
So, tell me what I wanna hear but it's still a lie to me
Never knew you'd be the one to live a double life on me

All I feel is rain
When you creep out in the night
And you cause me so much pain
But I still stand by your side
I cannot feel a thing
Sometimes I medicate
So I don't feel the rain
When you creep out in the night
And you cause me so much pain

Look, uh, check
So many good girls but I tend to love on the trouble type
But I draw a line if I'm thinking you live a double life
Devil on your left side shoulder, a angel on the right
We right in the middle of arguing at the party
Who started it? Hit the gas
You talkative, 'bout to crash
Who parking it? Getting mad
Is your barking at me for saying you heartless?
Trying my hardest to get in harmony
But we harboring feelings, so, hovering clouds, feeling down

If I knew from day one that you wouldn't ride
They say the pain hits you by surprise
You made it sound like you were down, now, you switching sides on me
I know everything, you don't gotta hide from me
I can see it all looking in your eyes
So, tell me what I wanna hear but it's still a lie to me
Never knew you'd be the one to live a double life on me

All I feel is rain
When you creep out in the night
And you cause me so much pain
But I still stand by your side
I cannot feel a thing
Sometimes I medicate
So I don't feel the rain
When you creep out in the night
And you cause me so much pain

All I feel is rain
I couldn't believe it, couldn't believe you, no
Look at what you made me do
Tell me you were never there for me
