

Khalid, Intro

Say you can't deal with me no more
Just say you don't want me
I never know what you feel no more
Just say you don't want me

Say you can't deal with me no more
Just say you don't want me
I never know what you feel no more
Just say you don't want me

It's been too much
I've been on the side, and I'm waiting
Got a little time
Maybe all night if I'm patient
What's on your mind? I can never read you (I can't)
Always leave you crying when we fight, but I don't mean to, yeah

No, no, love don't come easy
Especially when you're loving me, yeah
It's never enough for the both of us so sorry
Couldn't have known it would ever be this hard

We had it all but we lost and that's our fault
I should be here waiting for you to answer my call.
No
But I'm never giving up on what I been
I been focusing on putting me first
Still could never see you with somebody else

I can't even live with being by myself
That's the part of me that really needs your help
Lately I haven't been doing very well
That's a difference between heaven and hell

I feel heaven when you're here with me
I feel hell every time you leave
But I need to get you off of my back
I gotta get you off of my back

Wish that we would never take it this far
Here we are going back and forth
I hoped we would never make it this far
But now I gotta find my worth

Say you don't love me no more
Just say you don't want me
(Say you don't want me, yeah)
We don't gotta be no more
If you really don't want me
(We don't gotta be no more)

Said you can't deal with me no more
Just say you don't want me
(Just say you don't want me)
I never know what you feel no more
Just say you don't want me

We don't gotta be
We don't gotta be, hey
No more
We don't gotta be no more, no more, no more, no more
