

Khalid, Satellite

Satellite

I see you swimming through this open sky
I rest my head upon these dandelions
The stars are envious of you tonight
Broken dreams
I'm writing poems of our memories
Wish I could hold you through computer screens
But all the static keeps us in between

La, da-da

We're walking on a line

A line that leads me straight, straight, straight to you

You're like a satellite

Crossing through my mind

It always leads me straight, straight, straight to you

Saw the news

Oh, what a sight, it left me so confused

They're telling stories that you're leaving soon

They'll never know what you've been going through

I watch you drift away into the dark

Sometimes I sit and wonder where you are

Sending me signals to my, sending me signals to my hollow heart

La, da-da

We're walking on a line

A line that leads me straight, straight, straight to you

You're like a satellite

Crossing through my mind

It always leads me straight, straight, straight to you

La, da-da

We're walking on a line

A line that leads me straight, straight, straight to you (straight, straight, straight to you)

You're like a satellite

Crossing through my mind

It always leads me straight, straight, straight to you

Satellite

Crossing through my mind

It always leads me straight, straight, straight to you

You're like a satellite (like a satellite)

Crossing through my mind

It always leads me straight, straight, straight to you (it always leads me straight to you)
