

Khalid, Up All Night

take me around the world and back again as I'm searching for my soul out there there's something that I am wondering where I am going when my story ends doesn't even matter anyway, no focused and I am coping with the pain we're only getting older by the day

we're
only getting older

we're
we're
only getting older
