Kid Ink, More Than A King

An honest man often grows cruel
When converted into an absolute prince
Born from power, a bitter from fear
The madness, the treachery
The strong mixture of troubles
It is a man's own mind
Not his enemy a fool that lures him to evil ways
More than a man, more than a king
More like God!

I feel like like More than a king, more than a king, more like God It's more than a city, more than a village where we are Feels so good to you man Everything's so super fly

Uh, I don't need no cake Coming in high just to beat yo grace Wait, everybody sound so reckless King me, these niggas playin checkers Me? A nigga stay chest to chest Let somebody else check the check In my city protect yo neck It's more than a method man and you get up The man of the hour, sold-out shows for someone out Ridin round with this gold hangin on my chest like al Whole team winnin, OG hit a homerun, we chillin We don't talk much til you free, seen niggas It's showtime, check yo feet feet nigga I'm seeing ADHD, seeing everything clear through my red eyes Runnin these streets past, will get it right when you see a nigga zoom by Zoom out, you're standing way too close Groupie boy worse than a new hoe Cold heart growin, need a new coat Too high, tryna find my new low

To me a moving nature
Crosses the line into the relation to other men
A burn appetite and desire
Becomes lust and passion
The dominion that lands to hell over nature
He also seeks to have his brothers
So closely remind of his own proper beginning
And crossing on gods
Only God is to have dominion over all

Uh, so I just sit back and laugh at em Blowin kush and success my bad habit Sacrifices of mine, take a stab at em Feelin ain't no man like me since Adams Ask leaders, actors it's half Aston I'm a active, addict but I action Racks in, racks out, girl keep flashin Fact is, little life that you niggas fashion Hard to ball when ain't one to pass it In the past but I was way too passionate Way too much drive, almost crashin To the casket, fuck that to the ashes Uh, 31 nigga, off so much style, know you heard my nigga Uh, what's the word my nigga Been drunk since November my nigga uh Yea, tell a bitch kick the feet out Anything she left, left me like regal Lit em on fire, take take em all down

Pull out the shots and take it like pow
Faded off my own strand
Better pull to the side, this is my own lane
Speedin over nigga, hittin corners in a maze
I can see where we going, hope the signs gon change

More than a king, more than a king, more like God More than a king, more than a king, more like God More than a king, more than a king... more like God
