

Killswitch Engage, Unleashed

deceive me
release me
unleash me
you've unleashed the wild within

welcome to the madness the dwells inside these eyes push unto the breaking point you're running out of time this innocent blood is on your hands

deceive me
come face to face with the final stand
release me
it's part of me you can't comprehend
unleash me
you who spoke defiance you who spoke in jest
the last of all my tolerance has left this broken man

I remind you time and time again you've broke the restrains against your heart against the dark
can you feel the pain of those you've betrayed the promises unmade broken hearts that fill with shame and you're to blame do they call your name
nothing left to say
