

Kim Petras, Born Again

Ah, I feel like you're the type,
to come into my life, and make me go ah
You, you look like something new, like someone who could tear me into two

I don't wanna say what I feel for you, I just wanna stay right next to you
I really really do ah
Maybe I'm the type that's hot for pain, I just wanna hear you say my name ah
I really fucking do

You make me feel like I'm born again
You make me feel like the devil's gonna win
You make me feel like I'm born again
You make me feel like I'm
You make me feel

Eyes, Valentino red
You're looking at my dress, just take it off (take it off) ah
You open up the door,
Now all I want is more
(All I want is more)

I don't wanna say what I feel for you, I just wanna stay right next to you
I really really do
Maybe I'm the type that's hot for pain, I just wanna hear you say my name
I really fucking do

You make me feel like I'm born again
You make me feel like the devil's gonna win
You make me feel like I'm born again
You make me feel like I'm
You make me feel

Take it off, ah

You make me feel, make me feel, baby

All I want is more

You make me feel like I'm born again
You make me feel like the devil's gonna win
You make me feel like I'm born again
You make me feel like I'm
You make me feel
